Trackitdown:

Three mixes on offer with the Para X Remix being our choice. Driving energetic trance with a chilled out breakdown. Nice work indeed.

Dimitri:

Both original and full mixes are full with nice sounds, a strong hook in the break that leads the track very nice and floaty. Of course the big bang comes from Para X who gives a massive spin to it and transformed it into a top peak time monster anthem that has drive with strong electroish base and with a melody to dominate and hook you like a fish and not leave you till the DJ moves to the next track. Tetsuo at its best that continues its trance legacy.
